

I do not want the Indiana's Telephone Privacy law be weakened by allowing the members of Consumer Bankers Association to contact its consumers. Any correspondence needed with their consumers must be done in writing via mail and there is no necessity for the Banks to contact the consumer over phone. I seriously oppose the challenge of Consumer Bankers Association against Indiana's Telephone Privacy law.